British Government Sends Representative—Sessions To Occur At Cathedral

Singers from the eastern seaboard and the mid west, singers from the southland and from the provinces of Canada, hundreds of them converged upon New Castle last night and today—and will be joined by hundreds more tonight and tomorrow for the National Gymanfa Ganu which opens tonight at seven in the Cathedral. Sunday afternoon at two o'clock and Sunday night at seven o'clock the singing sessions will take place.

Tonight at seven, the Nosen Lawen, or Happy Night, takes place in the dining room of the Cathedral. This is the night of informality, the night for old friends to get together and reminisce over a cup of tea, the night when the tales of other days are told again and the years are turned back for a little while.

Principal Speaker
There will be two addresses tonight at the Nosen Lawen, the principal speaker being Hon. John Jones of London, who was flown to New York this week by clipper to represent the British government at the Gymanfa Ganu here. He is a former member of parliament, an author and playwright and presently is in the intelligence service of his government.

Another speaker will be William O. Griffith of New York City, vice president of the Welsh section of the British War Relief association. In addition there will be a number of extemporaneous remarks from outstanding visitors and some singing. William Hargest of Pittsburgh, secretary-treasurer of the United Mine Workers of America, will be the master of ceremonies.

PA NEW OBSERVES

New Castle is today host to an influx of visitors from many parts of the nation, coming here to attend the sessions of the National Gymanfa Ganu. The Cathedral auditorium provides adequate accommodations for this great event herebefore held in metropolitan areas, and New Castle is most gratified to be able to serve as the center for this notable assemblage. On behalf of the people of the community Pa New extends a hearty welcome to all of the city's guests on this occasion.

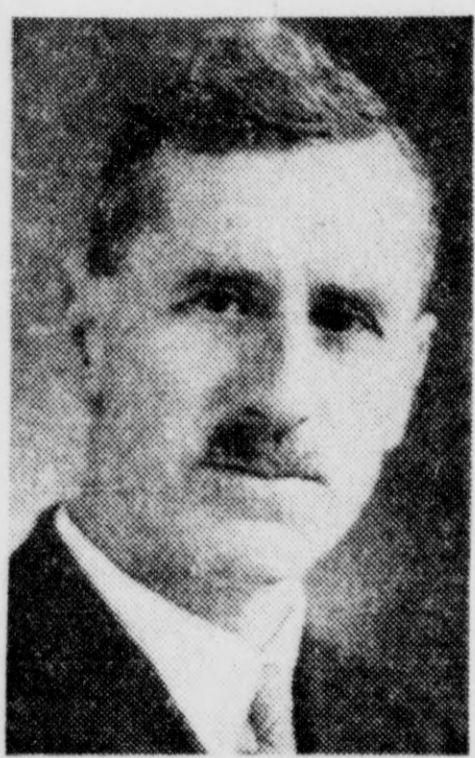

While there may be some curtailment to long distance auto traveling over the week end and Labor Day holiday, as a result of the restrictions ordered on gasoline sales in the east, there will be plenty of traffic on the highways of this district to require that every driver observe the maximum of safety precautions for travel on the highways. Speed of forty miles an hour

Non-Defense Cut Seen By Senator

By WILLIAM S. NEAL
International News Service Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Aug. 30.—A drastic reduction in non-defense expenditures was foreseen today by Sen. George (D) Ga., chairman of the powerful senate finance committee, as he prepared to seek passage next week of a record-shattering $3,672,400,000 tax bill.

The new tax bill, plus a slash in non-essential expenditures, will go far to cut the annual treasury deficits and be a powerful restraining factor against inflation, he said.

While the latest treasury estimate places the yield of the bill framed by the finance committee at $3,672,400,000, George believes it will produce about $4,000,000,000.

The committee set in motion a program to slash non-defense expenditures by calling on the budget for a "special report and recommending creation of a joint senate-house committee to work with Secretary of the Treasury Morgenthau in mapping a reduction plan.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 30.—With the fate of the Far East seen hanging in the balance, the state department today studied a number of specific proposals contained in Japan's peace message to the United States.

Exact nature of the proposals made by Japanese Prime Minister Fumimaro Konoye in his personal message to President Roosevelt is a closely guarded secret, but the proposals are understood to be specific in character.

A report in one diplomatic quarter indicated Japan is willing to make a small but important number of concessions to the United States in return for a considerably larger number of concessions by this country.

President At Hyde Park Home

May Touch On Foreign Situation In Labor Day Address To Nation

By GEORGE DURNO
International News Service Staff Correspondent

HYDE PARK, N. Y., Aug. 30.—President Roosevelt came back to his Hudson Valley home today for the Labor Day weekend, possibly prepared to shed further light on the position and prospects of the United States in the ever-tensing war situation, both in Europe and the Far East.

The chief executive has an opportunity to speak about the critical days ahead this afternoon, when he makes his annual appearance before the Roosevelt Home Club.

More likely was the prospect that Mr. Roosevelt would have his heavy fire until Labor Day—also the second anniversary of Germany's invasion of Poland which plunged all of Europe into another holocaust. He hinted as much just before leaving Washington, when asked to give an estimate of the American position at the moment.

On Labor Day, President Roosevelt will wind up a dramatically staged one-hour broadcast with a ten-minute prepared address. This program will be broadcast Monday internationally from 1 to 2 p. m. EDT.

Fact that the president, by revamping the national defense set-up into a single controlling agency had definitely and finally changed the United States over from a peacetime to a wartime economy, was regarded as one clue to his Monday address—particularly because of its Labor Day aspect.

Sister Injured As Auto Plunges From Pennsylvania Turnpike In Fog

(International News Service)
BEDFORD, Pa., Aug. 30.—A Pittsburgh girl was killed and her sister injured today in an accident on the Pennsylvania Turnpike one-half mile east of Bedford.

Police said the driver lost control in the fog, ran off the road and down a 20-foot embankment. They were en route to New Jersey to get their father-in-law. The car was completely demolished.

McKeesport Police Have New Problem

(International News Service)
PITTSBURGH, Aug. 30.—If you think you've got troubles, just imagine what police in nearby McKeesport had today. . . . tin cans by the thousands and angry kids by the hundreds!

More than 300 kids turned up this morning at the corner of Market street and Second avenue, where rumors said that everyone with a bushel of tin cans would be admitted free to the movie. They had cans in baskets, in paper bags, in their arms and anything that would hold them.

The movie management said politely, we don't know a thing about it, and there'll be no free tickets. From there on, the cans began flying in all directions, until the streets were littered and traffic disrupted.

Police admitted frankly they didn't know what to do about it.

BERLIN, Aug. 30.—In a veritable death blow to Russia's Baltic fleet, the German navy and air force have sunk 60 Red warships and crippled 54 more in operations connected with the fall of Tallinn and Baltic Port on the Estonian coast, Chancellor Hitler's field headquarters asserted today.

Mines blocking the Gulf of Finland, incessant attacks by the Luftwaffe, and shelling by German naval artillery blasted the Soviet fleet in the Baltic, and escape for the remainder now is cut off, according to Nazi GHQ.

Two Russian destroyers, nine mine-sweepers, and three patrol boats were sunk by German mine operations in the Gulf of Finland, a communiqué said.

Hitler At Crossroads Of History As Second Year Of War Nears End

By J. C. OESTREICHER
International News Service Staff Correspondent

Master of 16 conquered nations but ruler—save by the grace of Gestapo guns—of none but his own, Adolf Hitler stands today at the crossroads of a history he himself has made.

Monday, September 1, will mark the second anniversary of the date the Fuehrer of Nazi Germany plunged his iron army into the vitals of Poland and set in motion the clanking machinery of a steadily growing war.

The first year was Hitler's own. Nation after nation fell into his hands. England shuddered in fear of imminent invasion. The Fuehrer seemed destined for his place in history—a living symbol of the vanished hopes of Napoleon. Alexander, Genghis Khan.

Picture Changes
But in the second the picture changed and is changing daily still. Hitler at this moment is not a certain victor. Failure of the Luftwaffe to cow and browbeat a determined England, constantly increasing material aid from the United States and the unforeseen miscarriage of his anticipated "blitz" conquest of Soviet Russia have wrecked his carefully-drawn plans.

More important still, they have given new hope and confidence to his enemies, at home and abroad.

Hitler ushered in the second year of the war with words that have a hollow ring today. On September

STUBBORN FIGHTING ON ENTIRE FRONT

Report Red Sub Snks Fascist Sub In Black Sea Encounter

(BULLETIN)

MOSCOW, Aug. 30.—"Stubborn fighting on the whole front" was announced today while a supplementary military communiqué claimed 15,000 German soldiers were killed in futile attacks on a city identified only as "K."

A new communiqué, issued at noon today, said:

"Stubborn fighting continued last night on the whole front. A Soviet submarine sank a Fascist submarine in the Black Sea."

The war bulletin also said 28 grounded Messerschmitts and buildings and equipment at a German airdrome were destroyed by a Soviet aerial attack.

Report Train Destroyed
The Moscow radio also reported destruction of a large Nazi troop train at Warsaw by saboteurs.

The midnight high command communiqué reported heavy losses for the Luftwaffe. It announced that between August 21 and 27 at least 500 German planes were shot down or destroyed on the ground, while the Russian air force lost 262 machines.

A supplementary communiqué covering the German defeat at "K" said that for four days Germans carted their dead from the battlefield on the southwestern sector of the front around the town of "K."

It stated that repeated Nazi attacks failed to dislodge the Russians from their positions and that the operations cost the Germans 15,000 men, mowed down by accurate Russian artillery fire.

"Drunk German soldiers," said the Russian announcement, "were shot on the spot."

Germans Concentrate On Leningrad Drive

By PIERRE J. HUSS
International News Service Staff Correspondent

BERLIN, Aug. 30.—A Soviet "debacle" is taking shape at Leningrad, German authorities asserted today, as German reinforcements rushed to aid the forces hammering the northern Russian stronghold.

German quarters said terrific pressure now is being brought against the outer defenses of Leningrad with the aid of forces rushed there from Estonia after Tallinn and Baltic port fell into Nazi hands.

Concentrate On Leningrad
It appeared that the Germans were concentrating special efforts on Leningrad as the first aftermath of the conversations between Chancellor Hitler and Premier Mussolini on the Russian front.

During this parley they laid down a program for their projected "new order" in Europe, including elimination of the "Bolshevik danger" and "Plutocratic exploitation."

In addition it appeared certain they formed plans for countering American aid to Britain and any United States activities in the Far East.

An official Berlin announcement said that German planes sank three Soviet merchant vessels in the Gulf of Finland and damaged seven others, including one 10,000-ton ship.

In addition, it was stated German (Continued On Page Two)

Confessed Slayer May Be Wanted In Other Cities

Five Cities Send Detectives To Washington To Interview Accused Man

(International News Service)
WASHINGTON, Aug. 30.—Police today revealed that authorities in five other cities are dispatching detectives to Washington to question Jarvis R. Catoe, in an effort to determine if he might have been involved in crimes in their cities in addition to the eight rape murders the 36-year-old Negro has already confessed.

Representatives of the police departments of Trenton, N. J., Lynn, Mass., Media, Pa., and Garden City, N. Y., were said to be enroute to Washington to examine Catoe. Trenton authorities want to ask him about the murder of three women, Lynn detectives about the recent slaying of a school girl.

Promising a speedy trial, District authorities said they would demand the death penalty for Catoe, who police said admitted raping and killing Miss Jesse Elizabeth Striff, 23-year-old war department worker, June 15, Mrs. Elizabeth Andersen, 26, New York waitress, Aug. 4; Mrs. Rose Abramowitz, bride of a government worker, March 8; four Washington Negro women and an unidentified New York woman.

In his latest confession, police said Catoe told them he attacked and killed another New York woman "several months ago." Her name was withheld pending further investigation. All were strangled.

Lumber Yards Burn In East

TRENTON, N. J., Aug. 30.—Damage was estimated at $300,000 today after fire destroyed the A. K. Leuckel & Co. lumber yard, swept the nearby Wilson-Stokes Lumber Co. and threatened the main plant of John A. Roebling's Sons Co., holders of big steel wire defense contracts.

Both lumber firms, less than a mile from the heart of the city, have defense contracts and much of the destroyed finished wood at the Leuckel yard reportedly was slated for use at Fort Dix and other army camps. Thousands of persons flocked to the scene of the city's first general alarm in more than 20 years.

The fire damaged a Roebling company garage, destroyed a wooden freight car on a railroad siding, burned down railroad cabs and telegraph lines and delayed two passenger trains. Cause of the blaze was not immediately determined.

I never was known as a song bird. I do sing some tenor or base and once in a while in a curbstone quarter, I yodel all over the place. But for singing, I mean of the good kind, I never could claim much at that. For sometimes my voice would go sharp just a spot, and sometimes a little bit flat. But today there are singers by thousands and we welcome them all with a song, and today if you mention you're just a bit Welsh, my friend you will find you're not wrong. For the Welsh folks are here for their singing they're friendly and kindly and gay and I'll have to get up to hear some of those songs, it's bright, and past eighty today.

Flier Tells Crowd Of 12,000 U. S. Is Safe From Air Invasion

MILITARY AVIATION THEME DISCUSSED

(International News Service)
OKLAHOMA CITY, Okla., Aug. 30.—Pleading for American non-intervention in the war, Charles A. Lindbergh today left an assurance that America is safe from air invasion with 12,000 persons who heard him in an amateur baseball park outside Oklahoma City last night. The crowd, which was approximately half the number for which preparations had been made, gathered at the ball park for the America First committee rally after the city council had denied the committee use of the municipal auditorium for Lindbergh's address.

Discusses Military Aviation
Lindbergh devoted most of his talk to the capabilities of military aviation. He said that he had become convinced there were two natural air powers in the world, Germany and the United States, and that neither could attack the other successfully.

After pointing out that the British fleet was unable to operate within bombing range of Germany's European air bases, the famous flyer declared: "Instead of reducing the value of the Atlantic and Pacific oceans from the standpoint of our security, aviation makes them more important than ever before. Air power practically removes the danger of attack by sea; and the oceans themselves prevent effective attacks by air."

"It seems clear to me that the quickest way for Germany to lose a war would be to attack America, and that the quickest way for America to lose a war would be to attack Germany."

Lindbergh dwelt on the difficulties of trans-oceanic invasion under modern conditions, and also suggested that England might not prove a reliable ally if the United States joined her in war.

Expenditures this year on new construction will total about 10 billion dollars, the Department of Commerce reports.

Control Gulf Of Finland
Occupation of Tallinn, the former Estonian capital, and the naval base at Baltic Port gave the Germans major control of the Gulf of Finland, authorities said.

With mopping up operations proceeding in Estonia, the Germans were declared to have launched a drive to paralyze the Soviet fleet. Large mine fields were being sown in the waters outside Leningrad and Kronstadt to bottle up any Soviet naval units there while the German and Finnish navies swept the Gulf of Finland and the Baltic for "any stray Russian warships."

Russian naval units which escaped from Tallinn and Baltic Port are now taking refuge at Dagoo and Oesel Islands and off the Hangoo peninsula. German officials declared, however, that these ships are all within easy German and Finnish striking distance.

1. Resumption of trade relations between the two countries;
2. Relaxation of the American freezing order against Japanese assets in this country;
3. Abandonment of the policy of encirclement of Japan by the so-called ABCD powers—America, Britain, China and the Dutch East Indies;

4. A definite limit on the extent of American aid to China and to Soviet Russia via Vladivostok.

In return for these concessions, it is believed Japan is willing to give assurances she will not attack American, British or Dutch interests in the southern Pacific.

The nature of Prince Konoze's message to President Roosevelt, and the willingness of this government to talk things over with Japan, is understood to be causing grave concern to some other members of the ABCD united front in the Pacific. There is reason to believe that one of the powers concerned already has served informal notice on the American government that any appeasement of Japan at this time is likely to cause a collapse of the united front.

EXECUTE EIGHT MORE IN PARIS VICHY REPORTS

It was expected Colette would be brought to trial in Paris today. Since he has already confessed it was generally expected he will be guillotined.

He said he had purchased his six-shooter revolver in Algeria when traveling there.

Communist Member
Paris newspapers said that Colette had been a militant member of the Communist party for several years and that in June, 1940, he attempted to escape from France to England.

Colette has informed police that he lived at Caen but there is still some dispute on this point. Authorities are investigating the possibility Colette may have been connected with the murder of two French policemen at Caen a month ago.

These murders have been attributed to a De Gaulle Frenchman who is a suspected member of the De Gaulle intelligence service and who so far has escaped arrest.

May Be Guillotined Tomorrow

If Colette is charged with Communist or anarchist activities, he probably will be tried in the special Paris court today and guillotined tomorrow, if he is found guilty. But if he is not charged with these activities, he probably will receive a normal trial at the Court D'Assise later.

Laval, whose condition was worse yesterday, enjoyed a slight improvement this morning. The latest bulletin said Laval spent a quiet night. Deat's condition remained unchanged.

In connection with a new nationwide campaign for metals, Lieut. Gen. Teiichi Suzuki, chairman of the Konoze cabinet's planning board, said:

"These collections are being taken as a war-time measure to increase war-time production, and make the east Asiatic co-prosperity sphere wholly self-sufficient."

Demand New Order

And Kokumin Shimbun, the aggressive organ of the army, commented:

"Peace in the Pacific must be founded upon establishment of the new order in East Asia."

"It must not be permitted to obscure the true meaning of our holy war."

But a hopeful element was injected when Kameo Wakasugi, diplomatic advisor to Admiral Kichisaburo Nomura, Japanese ambassador to Washington, arrived in Yokohama from San Francisco.

Wakasugi stressed that Admiral Nomura's work in Washington "is facilitated by his friendship with President Roosevelt and American naval leaders."

He predicted that Japanese residents would remain in the United States in spite of the tension.

Controversy On New Pipe Lines

By ERIC FRIEDHEIM

International News Service Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Aug. 30.—A bitter controversy over construction of oil pipe lines today complicated administration and congressional efforts to alleviate the gasoline shortage in the eastern states.

Expenditure of $100,000,000 for pipe lines to carry oil from southern wells to the Atlantic region is meeting with strong opposition by the maritime commission.

The special Senate committee investigating the petroleum situation heard Acting Petroleum Coordinator Ralph K. Davies endorse the pipeline project. Chairman Emory S. Land of the maritime commission, however, raises vigorous objections and contends that the steel which will be used for the pipe lines more properly should be applied to the construction of tankers and other types of emergency vessels.

After two days of public hearings, testimony so far presented to the special committee indicates that the shortage in the eastern states may be eased somewhat after two months.

The maritime commission expects to place some additional tankers into service along the Atlantic coast at that time. These vessels will be taken from a fleet of 26 tankers to be acquired from South America.

The Parent Problem

By Garry C. Myers, Ph. D.

TEACH CHILD SPIRIT OF DEMOCRACY

Recently, I crossed the continent to participate in the 48th annual convention of the Association for Childhood Education, at Berkeley, Calif. This organization is one of the most worthy while of its kind in America. It's 35,000 members are leaders in the education of young children, and for years it has been emphasizing the child in all its relationships, putting added emphasis year by year on the home and family.

People do not go to its convention to learn new words and fads in education. Its leaders face reality and have their feet on the ground. One thing that especially impressed me, at this convention, was that at no meeting did I hear emphasis on freedom except with responsibility. Nor did I hear the word, "self-expression."

Resolution Adopted
In the resolutions of the convention one reads: "We reaffirm our belief that a democratic way of living offers the best opportunity for human development that the world knows at present. As individuals we will endeavor to practice democratic living consistently and completely by: Recognizing and accepting responsibility. Facing life in a straightforward, courageous way. Respecting other individuals and their contributions. Abiding by decisions which have been developed through group action. Making personal sacrifices for the welfare of humanity. Practicing friendliness in all human relations."

Everyone Studies
This convention differs from others of its kind in that those attending enter study classes and engage in workshops. Every one takes a humble learning attitude. They all learn together. One who serves as leader or expert in one group may study and work as a layman in another.

Part of the time I served as an "expert" in a study group with the theme, "Democratic Living in Our Classrooms as an Influence in the Development of Children and Adults."

Miss Agnes Burke of Teachers college, Columbia University, was the other "expert." What she emphasized delighted me. She said that the teacher must be in authority and children must learn obedience in accordance with a plan worked out democratically. She assumed that parents, like teachers, have certain experiences which the child because of his immaturity, does not have. Much to my satisfaction, she does not see a place in the early grades for pupil-government. With her marvelous insight into the development, nature and feelings of the young child, she described numerous ways of living democratically in the classroom.

Spirit of Democracy
The entire group emphasized the spirit rather than the form of democracy. Moreover, responsibility and the rights of others was constantly emphasized in this group. They were interested in finding out how to induce in the child at school the desire to take responsibility of others when there was no student-group pressure to cause him to be so.

A selected list of books for parents who wish to understand children better and live with them more happily and democratically may be had by writing me at 235 East 45th street, N. Y. City, enclosing a self-addressed envelope with a recent stamp.

Solving Parent Problems
Q. Why does it do little or no good to punish the tot for running away after he has been found or brought back?
A. Because the punishment tends to be connected with being caught, rather than with running away.

THE POOR FISH

A fish there was, a small mouthed bass,
Who saw a gleaming bit of white,
A minnow he refused to pass;
An easy morsel of delight,
A tempting mouthful he could take
And not the slightest effort make.

"Ah," thought the wily bass, "his plain
The foolish to the wise are prey,
Disdaining laws of loss and gain,
A trusting role in life they play,
While others who are much more shrewd
With little labor win their food."

"Something for nothing can be had,
If one is sharp and wise as I.
The bass that's clever, I may add,
With little pains his meal may buy."

He gulped, and then the hook was struck!
And man above exclaimed with glee,
"Another fish is out of luck,
Thinking to get his dinner free.
Another landed in the net,
Seeking an easy meal to get!"

Hints On Etiquette

To eat corn on the cob you should select a piece of corn which does not require the support of both hands. If a larger piece is offered hold it in the napkin and break it, butter, pepper and salt enough of it for one or two mouthfuls.

Believe it or not, the Russians buy many more books than Americans. For one thing, they aren't charged $3 for a book that costs 15 cents to print and bind.

The largest amount recovered from one envelope was $50,000 in bonds. It happened to be part of a robbery loot and was eventually restored to its owner.

What's What At A Glance

Roseman's Job Is To Cut Red Tape
Must Unravel Tangle In Big Bureaus
Tax Anticipation Notes Is One Issue

By CHARLES P. STEWART
Central Press Columnist

WASHINGTON, Aug. 30.—Judge Samuel I. Roseman is an old friend and adviser of President Roosevelt. He was F. D. R.'s official counselor when the present national chief executive was governor of New York. Now he's on the Empire State supreme bench. The White House has borrowed him from there, however, to see if he can straighten out the jumble of conflicts and contradictions among Uncle Sam's defense and anti-defense agencies.

If he succeeds he'll prove himself a wonder. The existing mixup is awful. Try as you may, you can't find out a thing.

Illustratively take the simple little matter of buying an income tax anticipation note. Next March's income levy doubtless will be terrible. Realizing it, the treasury hit on the scheme of permitting victims to invest occasionally (maybe once a month) in one of these anticipation notes (a fraction of the expected total) and turning in the collection of 'em when the full amount is due. It struck me as a wise idea to begin acquiring 'em, but I didn't know just how to go about it.

Well, Washington is fairly swarming with quirksters on such emergency subjects these times, so the District of Columbia has opened an "information bureau" in the center of town to explain things.

To this bureau I applied for information. "Why, you see," said the proper functionary, "that would be information and we haven't got it. But you go right over there." And he pointed to another bureau half a block away. "That's especially a tricky bureau. They can tell you."

To the treasury bureau, accordingly, I repaired. "Too bad," replied the bureau's boss, "but that's information. Hence we don't know."

Pass Up, Anyway
Finally I took the chance of mailing my check directly to the treasury department. I don't know how that method will work, for a haven't received my tax anticipation note yet, but the department, if it's cashed my check has got my dough.

I told my "information bureau" story to a friend of mine, Jim North, whose livelihood is in steering visiting businessmen around from agency to agency to get authorizations to run their factories and things.

"Heck!" commented Jim. "Your experience is nothing."

"Why, I've got on my hands," he continued, "a big party of plant owners from out west, here in quest of priorities, enabling them to buy raw materials to operate their various industries. If they can't get 'em, they'll have to shut down and look what that'll do to jobs!"

"Priority grants are up to Bill Knudsen's OPM, but each raw material is under the jurisdiction of some separate OPM sub-director. You've got to find the right one. And there are a lot of 'em, and they're scattered all over Washington. Suppose a guy wants a priority on silk. You're not in danger of mixing that priority-granter with a priority-granter as to steel. But there are a couple of dozen different qualities of steel, with a different man in charge of each one. Applying at headquarters, which doesn't know steel's variations from something to eat, you're apt to be directed to the wrong sub-office. Most likely that gives you another misdirection. It's nothing unusual for a questioner to be kept scouting around Washington from office to office, for a matter of weeks."

Tough Questions
Finally the applicant hits the right place. Immediately he's asked, "How much of your finished product, converted from raw material, goes into defensive stuff? Unless the bird is a direct government contract for his output, it may be pretty hard for him to say how it's divided up between civilian and defensive usage."

"But assume that, at last, he gets a first second or third degree priority rating. Then he streaks it out to Chicago, for instance, and puts in his order for raw material to keep his plant in operation."

"But, before he gets the stuff in all probability priority ratings have been readjusted and his own no longer is any good."

"Aint that calculated to discourage industry?"

Such is the log jam that Judge Roseman was conscripted of figure on.

The World and the Mud Puddles

THE DIFFERENCE

A good farmer, an intelligent farmer, does not have to ask the government for relief of any kind. He may at times have his crops destroyed by some catastrophe of nature or by the locusts, or by some other destroying creature, but he is always several jumps ahead of disaster. If he owns his own farm, there is no mortgage on it. His barns always contain sufficient food for his livestock; his cellars always contain sufficient food for his household. He is the most independent citizen of this nation.

The poor farmer, on the contrary, is always in trouble. He pretends to own his farm, it is heavily mortgaged. A great part of it is never cultivated. He often degenerates into keeping a cow, a few pigs and a lot of chickens, and cultivates only a small garden, raising a few potatoes and less corn. The majority of the poor farmers are tenant farmers. If they attempt to farm an area of land, sharing the crop with the owner of the land, the owner of the land gets nothing and the tenant not sufficient to even sustain himself and family. Why? Because he does not know how.

He is like the Iowans who sold their large farms thirty years or so ago and moved to California, taking with them some money and scratches of paper representing mortgages accepted as part payment of their farms. What did they do? They attempted to do something concerning which they knew nothing; namely, to operate a small grocery store. After a year or two the customers living about that store, whose purchases were charged against them in their pass books, moved away or quit paying, and the would-be groceryman found himself bankrupt.

Driving through Oklahoma recently, I saw many many farmers, beautifully cultivated. In fact, along the through highway, known as U. S. 66 (the Santa Fe Trail), I saw practically no poorly cultivated farms, but farms of rich land, fine crops, comfortable farm houses and big barns. Now, perhaps there are parts of Oklahoma where the land is not so rich but I will guarantee that the people furnishing the characters for that very communistic story known as "Grapes of Wrath" were not good farmers; they were far from it. They did not know what it was all about and, consequently, they failed, and they picked up what few chattels they had and staggered out to that much advertised Land of Promise, known as the State of California, and did not find much more hope there than they had in their Oklahoma home.

In other words, the intelligent farmer gets along in Oklahoma; he gets along in California; he gets along every place, while the poor farmer does not.

The newspapers carried a story a few days ago about a Texan man who paid for a ride which he stole on the Missouri Pacific railroad 39 years ago.

He insisted on paying at the rate of three cents a mile, the then prevailing rate.

His conscience said the man impelled him to pay up in full.

Conscience is the power to discern between good and evil.

It is the function of the soul—neither fear nor repentance are its synonyms.

Conscience is ever present until the debt has been paid in full.

Concluding union services for this season in Cascade park, the Second Baptist and St. Luke's congregations will be in charge of the service this Sunday evening, August 31. The service is scheduled to start at 7 o'clock and will be held in the community building.

Rev. K. M. Taylor, pastor of St. Luke's A. M. E. Zion church, has been announced as the speaker for the evening.

The senior choir of the Second Baptist church will present several selections.

Park services this season, sponsored by the New Castle Ministerial association, have been well attended. The minister in charge each Sunday evening has been assisted by other ministers in attendance at the services.

The community building at the park, improved by the park commission and C. C. The community singing of hymns has been an enjoyable feature of each service.

Members of the Ministerial association on the park services committee have been the Revs. A. M. Stump, J. C. Rose, R. B. Withers, G. S. Bennett, C. J. Burton and J. A. Cousins, with Mr. Burton in charge of publicity.

Hitler-Duce Map Program

(International News Service)
BERLIN, Aug. 30.—The four-day conference in which Chancellor Hitler and Premier Mussolini engaged on the Russian front was described by the official German news agency (DNB) today as having laid down a program for Europe which spurns "any interference from other hemispheres."
A special D.N.B. correspondent attached to Hitler's headquarters at the front wrote that the significance of the talks was "underlined by the fact that the final communiqué for the first time in the war gave details regarding the subjects discussed."
"This communiqué, issued yesterday," said Hitler and Mussolini decided on a program for the "new order" in Europe designed to eliminate Bolshevism and "plutocratic exploitation."
"The constructive words of the communiqué contain a realistic program for the new Europe which is aware of its great mission," the D. N. B. dispatch said.

Touring Motorists Keep 'Guage Watch'

Gas Situation Puts Drivers On Holiday Alert; Many Cars Garaged

Motorists of the New Castle district, along with others in 17 Atlantic seaboard states, drove out of their garages on Labor Day jaunts this morning prepared to keep a sharp eye on their gas guage and the clock.
"Watching the clock" was sure to become a feature part of almost every trip—if the route went through states observing the nightly closing of early reports from two of the busiest highway junctions here—the Dixie Inn beyond Rose Point and the Parktown intersection—said that as many cars as ever were on the roads. Gasoline stations, it was reported were doing a "good business."
Ohio drivers coming into Pennsylvania drove in to the pumps in this area, apparently fearful that fuel couldn't be obtained during the daytime on Sunday. Many only know the east has gas "blackouts", but how it works some don't know.
Heads of local gas distributing firms indicated stations here will have enough supplies for the holiday traffic, but just what situation will develop after that they cannot say.
Holiday crowds at railroad depots and the city's bus terminal indicated that "lots of people" decided to travel that way instead of risking pulling into "dry" gas pumps in their automobiles.

WINDOWS REPAIRED

AT LOCAL SCHOOL

Included in the usual summer repair work for the Mahoning school this year was the repairing of a number of windows. Several sections of glass were put in place and repairs were made to others.

Some of the windows needed more repairs, however, to repair damage done sometime ago by termites. The building was rid of the termites last year, but some of the damage they had done was not repaired until now.

The army is in control out on the Slippery Rock Creek this afternoon and will be Sunday and Monday. Not the regular army nor yet the National Guard but Company B of the Third Regiment Pennsylvania Defense Reserve Corps. The company, plus the regimental officers open a three day encampment at the Boy Scout camp this afternoon which will last until late Monday afternoon.

The encampment is not only the first of the Third Regiment but the first of the entire state. In honor of the regimental commander, Colonel Robert E. Woodside, the camp is known as Camp Woodside. The officers of the regiment will attend an officers' school will be held. The men of Company B will walk guard posts, execute military formations and undergo an intensive training for the three days.

Camp Commander

Major Frank A. Weber, battalion commander will be the camp commander and Captain Lester W. McClelland, company commander will be the camp adjutant. Battalion Sergeant Major Frank W. Hill and Company Clerk A. H. Klingensmith will be in charge of the office detail.

Feeding the 75 or 80 men who will attend was a job that was whipped together hurriedly but it was done. Foodstuffs of all kinds were gathered together and everything that came from Lawrence County was contributed by commission houses, merchants and farmers. The same story is practically true of Beaver County so that the cost of feeding the group for the three days will not eat too heavily into the company's rather meagre fund.

The men of Company B come from Lawrence, Beaver, Mercer and Butler counties. Every Friday when they come to the Joseph V. Cunningham armory and drill, getting here at their own expense and getting no compensation for their drills. Neither will they be paid for attending the encampment. They are doing it because they know they are saving the defense measures of the nation.

Visitors Welcome

Visitors are welcome at Camp Woodside Sunday afternoon and Monday afternoon. At five o'clock Sunday afternoon vesper services will be held with Rev. John Jamison McVaine, pastor of First Presbyterian church delivering the sermon. Mrs. Madeline Rugh will sing.

The camp was shaping up this afternoon nicely and by Sunday morning will be running with military precision. The usual military rules will prevail with one being enforced rigidly, no intoxicating beverages of any kind upon the camp grounds.

County Youths Score High In Judging Tests

Lawrence County F. F. A. And 4-H Club Members Win Honors At Stoneboro

Lawrence county farm youths won honors at the judging contest conducted for F. F. A. and 4-H Club boys in connection with the annual Stoneboro Fair at Stoneboro yesterday, with East Brook F. F. A. team leading the way with a first in livestock judging, and a second in cattle judging.

On livestock, in addition to the first place of East Brook, other winners, were: second place, Sandy Lake; third place, Slippery Rock; fourth place, Harlansburg; all F. F. A. Club. Princeton team took 10th place in this event.

In dairy judging, the winners were: Slippery Rock, first; East Brook second, Zelienople third, Evans City, fourth, Rockland, fifth, with New Wilmington, sixth; Mt. Jackson, tie for seventh, and Harlansburg, ninth.

Much of the success of the East Brook team was due to the fine work of Arnold McConnell, who placed among the first ten at the F. F. A. contest at State College in June, and who will go back next month for the final contest to pick a team to represent the state at the American Royal Livestock show at Kansas City in October.

During the past year, Singer was senior vice-commander of the veterans. He succeeds Dr. Joseph C. Menendez, New Orleans physician who was given a rousing vote of thanks by the delegates for his "excellent work" as leader.

At the same time, it was announced that none of the cities bidding for next year's encampment had met the financial requirements of the organization and the matter was referred to the national council of administration, which will select the 1942 convention city within the next 60 days. Those bidding for the encampment are Atlantic City, Hollywood, Detroit, Indianapolis and Seattle.

Accompanists For Gymnast Ganu

MRS. JOHN M. EVANS
Pianist

EDWIN LEWIS
Organist

MISS LENA RICHARDS
Pianist

One of the important features of any musical event is the accompanying instrumental music. Whether it be a symphony orchestra or a single piano the accompaniment must be well done or the entire musical event is affected adversely.

For the Gymnast Ganu which is being held here tonight and tomorrow, three accompanists will be used, an organist and two pianists.

With a crowd as vast as will be in the Cathedral for the singing sessions Sunday afternoon and evening the accompanists must have volume enough to be heard and the Greer memorial organ and two concert grand pianos will be used.

At the organ will be Edwin Lewis, well known local musician who has been working with the New Castle Gymnast Ganu chorus since it was organized some months ago.

At the pianos will be Mrs. John

M. Evans of Clairton, Pa., and Miss Lena Richards. Mrs. Evans is a former New Castle woman and was the organist at several New Castle churches during the years she lived here.

Miss Richards is a local musician who has done much church work in the past fifteen years. All three of the accompanists are talented and in their hands the accompaniments will be well cared for.

Iran's Capitulation Opens Important New Supply Route To Russia

Success of British and Russian forces gaining control of Iran has opened a new route of supply into the Soviet Union, one that is regarded as more satisfactory than the present one from Vladivostok (2) across Siberia to European Russia. The rail connection between the Trans-Iranian railroad and the end of a Soviet branch line at Tabriz is indicated by the dotted line. ## Wharf Contract Strike Affected

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, Aug. 30.—Pittsburgh's Duquesne Way wharf improvement project today was added to the list of jobs through which the Pittsburgh building trades and construction council is striking against the Duquesne Light company.

The council ordered members of its 29 affiliated crafts off the wharf project late yesterday because no assurance had been given that the light company would be refused wire-laying work on the site. While other projects were being checked, Chairman James Ahearn of the strike committee reported that walkouts also were ordered on the $3,000,000 Sears-Roebuck construction job and the Spear & Company store project, two others where Duquesne Light holds wiring contracts.

Employees of the Bridge and Building Department of the Pennsylvania Railroad, with their families, are having a basket picnic at Conneaut Lake park today.

A program of sports was scheduled for this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Several officials of the company will attend the event, with around 100 New Castle district employees in attendance.

Committees in charge of arrangements are: C. L. Hawkins, general chairman; R. F. Davis, chairman of adult sports; E. D. Miller, chairman of children's sports; Stanley May transportation chairman; J. A. Bullis, chairman of ground committee.

Hillsville Will Have Celebration

For the thirty-fifth consecutive year, St. Lucy's society of Hillsville will hold a Labor Day celebration on August 31 and September 1. Ben Gallo is the general chairman with Marshall Sackin as the chairman and the following committee: John B. Rosse, Frank Mediate, Joe Mediate, Dan Lupo, Mike Lupo, Ben Lupo, Joe Mandiliga, Frank Sneliga and Frank Fire.

A band concert on Sunday from 8 to 10:30 at the community playgrounds will be a feature of the first day of the celebration. On Labor Day morning at 9 o'clock a parade will be held and at 1:30 a sports program will be held. Dancing will take place in the afternoon with a speaking program booked for 9:30 in the evening. At 11:30 fireworks will end the celebration.

Also to be merged into the new division is the army-navy conservation branch which has been keeping tabs on military purchases so that the armed branches do not buy coffee pots and desks of aluminum when substitutes will do just as well.

Nelson, whose official title is executive officers of the supplies, priorities and allocation board, made the plans as reports spread in Washington of further changes in the defense setup. The next reshufflings, it is reported, will come in the office of civilian defense and the federal transportation unit of emergency management.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 30.—Donald M. Nelson, executive officer of President Roosevelt's super seven-man defense board, today made plans to create a new government bureau to ease the shock of the war impact on U. S. industry while he tries to step up arms output to a rate of more than $36,000,000,000 a year.

The new agency is to be known as the bureau of conservation, regulation, standardization, simplification and substitutes—CRSSS.

Nelson, who also is director of the priorities division of OPM, is to combine the conservation unit of OPM, the standardization unit of OPACS, and the division of simplified practice of the Bureau of Standards, the latter an agency which dates back to the first World War.

Also to be merged into the new division is the army-navy conservation branch which has been keeping tabs on military purchases so that the armed branches do not buy coffee pots and desks of aluminum when substitutes will do just as well.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 30.—The official Turkish radio reported today that Soviet forces advancing through Iran were due to reach the Iranian capital of Teheran this morning.

The Moscow radio reported Soviet troops yesterday occupied the Iranian towns of Mehabad, Pahlevi, Benberdi and Meshed.

(An official British military announcement at Simla said Iranian resistance had ceased on all British fronts in Iran and added that "the situation in areas occupied by our troops is fast returning to normal.")

HELSINKI, Aug. 30.—Finnish troops today captured Viborg (Viipuri) historic city on the Karelian Isthmus, only 70 miles north-west of Leningrad. Finland's army headquarters announced.

The city, scene of heavy fighting during the Russo-Finnish war of two years ago, had been surrounded.

High Squad Ends Week Of Training

Start Packing Up Today For Trip Home From Muddy Creek Falls Camp

Coaches Satisfied Boys Have Given Best, Prepare To Meet Grove City

This was the last day for the New Castle High "Red Hurricane" football team in Muddy Creek Falls. Following the lunch at noon today the boys began to pack up their belongings and think about getting back to New Castle. One week of intensive drills has now passed. From today until next Tuesday afternoon the squad will get a rest. Beginning Tuesday the coaches will be busy applying the polish that will be evident when the "Red Hurricane" flashes out on the greenward next Friday night at 8 o'clock to battle Grove City high under the lights.

Plenty Accomplished
The week in camp has done the squad a world of good. They have mastered the fundamentals and have learned their plays. The squad this year is an exceptional one, not big, but well balanced in size and weight and gentlemen. The boys this year according to the coaches are well mannered and there was not the slightest hitch in the week that they spent at Muddy Creek Falls.

The squad seems to have the proper spirit and determination to win. There are no outstanding stars on the team this year. Just how good the "Red Hurricane" is, can only be told Friday night.

Coaches Satisfied
Head Coach Phil Bridenbaugh, and his assistants—Bill Klee, Cig Thomas and Paul Cuba are of the opinion that the boys did the best that they knew how in the week at camp to master the fundamentals. Of course there are many mistakes that will need correcting and this will be done starting Tuesday.

Going out on the well worn limb once again the writer from his camp observations believes that this will be the starting lineup on next Friday night—Zubkowsky and Parou at the ends; Scrazzo and Roussos at the tackles; Masters and Ryan at the guards; Genkinger at center; Peters at quarterback; Doster or Ross at the right-half post; Lee at left-half, and Bobby Stewart at fullback.

Ticket Sale Brisk
The above lineup will give New Castle four regulars from last year.

Johnson Bronze Golfing League

Johnson Bronze Golfers Enjoy League Matches At Castle Hills Course

The Johnson Bronze golfers enjoyed another round of matches at the Castle Hills course on Friday evening. The end of play found the Hazards, Brassies and Birdies deadlocked for the league lead with 10½ points apiece.

Due to a little misunderstanding of last week's total the Hazards only got 1½ points and the Mashies got 3½, so instead of the Hazards and Mashies being tied last week it was the Mashies out in front 8½ to 6½ points.

Medalist last night was Stanley Kibish with a sparkling 37 card, while other low cards were turned in by Stan Bukowski 38, Nick Mitlo 40, Hoover 41, Fraser 41. The low weekly gold ball was won by Jack Essinger with a low net of 31, resulting from a 42-11 handicap card.

Results last night:
Hazards 4, Eagles 1.
Brassies 4, Mashies 1.
Birdies 3½, Pars 1½.
Standing of the league to date:
Hazards 10½, Birdies 10½, Brassies 10½, Mashies 9½, Eagles 2, Pars 1½.

Indians Call In Rookie Talent

(International News Service)
CLEVELAND, Aug. 30.—It took a long time, but Manager Roger Peckinpaugh, serving his second term as chief of the battered old Cleveland Indian Wigwam, finally gave up today on his Redskin warriors in favor of a tribe of up and coming young braves.

The braves won't report to the chief until their time is up in the minor leagues, but as soon as they finish—most complete their chores by Labor Day—they'll come riding into the Cleveland camp all set to replace the tired, listless band of tribesmen who could only win one game in five with the tail end clubs of the American League—Washington and Philadelphia.

"We can't win with what we have, so we might as well try out the new ones," was the way Peckinpaugh put it, and that is all he would say. Seems enough, though, to herald the passage to the bench of such old grand sachs as Rolfe Hemsley, Al Smith, Al Milnar, Roy Weatherly, Gerry Walker and others.

New braves slated to take over for their harassed brothers will include Red Embree, sensation as a hurler with Wilkes-Barre this year; Jim Hegan a catcher, also from Wilkes-Barre; Verne Freiburger, a first sacker from Flint, Mich.; a couple of other infielders and some outfielders.

BIT SHY

Nick Etten, Phil's first-baseman who's firing with the National League batting crown, has a slight inferiority complex. Nick said he spent all last winter "worrying about the kind of pitching I had to face this summer." Etten, former Villanova collegian, thinks American League hurling is good, but says the senior circuit is "more deceptive."

EASTERN LOOP TOS

Spence Abbott, manager of the Williamsport Grays, firmly believes the Eastern Baseball league is "far better than most minor loops in the country and as good as leagues classed higher." He bases his judgment on the fact that 81 per cent of all Eastern leaguers who make the majors stay in the big time.

ENDS SEPTEMBER 7

The American Association league race, one of the hottest in several seasons, will end on Sunday, September 7. Columbus and Louisville are staging a tooth and nail battle for the top berth, with Kansas City, Minneapolis and Toledo scrambling for the third and fourth slots.

SPORTS WORLD RAMBLINGS

Sports trail melody:—One of our favorite ex-New Castle high school athletes—Mike "Moxie" DiMuccio—stopped in today. Through your column you may please thank all New Castle sports fans, particularly employees of the Johnson Bronze and Pennsylvania Engineering Works? You know, next week I undergo a most serious operation in Cleveland or Baltimore. My right arm and part of the shoulder will be amputated. The ex-high school football ace revealed.

He disclosed how employees of the two local firms raised a fund which will help pay expenses for the operation. "I can't thank them personally, so I came to you," the genial DiMuccio said. The South Jefferson street man then proceeded to unravel a heart-touching story of how an injury which will take his life—unless the operation is performed. We're safe in saying that if prayers and best wishes of local sports fans mean anything, DiMuccio has already won his most crucial battle.

Pete Moran, who has fought several amateur bouts here, is among the candidates battling for a varsity football berth at Shenango township high. Pete was a reserve last season. Tom Patton, ex-Westminster college athlete, has accepted the coaching position at Frenchburg, Ky. Johnny Aicher, the Sharon heavyweight, should know something about Lou Nova's cosmic punch. All traps should be set clear of trails and must be tagged.

Charles F. Stambaugh, writing in the Pennsylvania Game News reports that 4,000 persons were arrested in the state for game violations during 1940. Only exceptional cases were made public. "Dogs may be used to hunt groundhogs up to September, Sundays excepted between six a. m. and 7:30 p. m. The same publication reports that one way to keep rabbits out of a garden is to set a cedar milk bottle three-fourths in the ground. The cottontail sees his shadow and is frightened. A shiny tin can also will do the trick.

The pugilist score between Russell Baxter, local 155-pounder, and Mike Burke of Niles who decided Russell when Baxter was in fistie infancy, is now 50-50, the New Castle fighter having handed out a drubbing to Mike last night in three rounds at Conneaut Lake. He floored Burke in the second round and further, Billy Conn, the Pittsburgh Kid who had Joe Louis apparently on the skids, then took a chance and went to sleep, refereed the fight following which he paid Russell a neat tribute. Billy, a former light-heavyweight champion, remarked that "Baxter looks good."

Virginia Guilford of White Sulphur Springs won a 5 and 4 golf victory over Mrs. J. H. Helm of Kane at White Sulphur Springs yesterday. The winner's victory was earned through four birdies on the first

There remain 13 unplayed games in the Lawrence County Baseball league but indications are, if Hillsville wins from Ellwood City at Hillsville on 3:45 p. m. Tuesday, the season will come to an end because Hillsville will have copied the second-half flag. If Hillsville loses the second-half flag, Ellwood City Friday Hillsville and Besemer have played all excepting two games while Wampum has three games to play. One is a game Ellwood City has six to play but a said in the foregoing if Hillsville wins the second half will go to the "quarrytowners" and the series with Ellwood City will be arranged.

Yanks To Start Selling Tickets

With Tremendous Lead, Yankees Are Almost Safe In Selling Series Paste boards

DODGERS CARDS STILL BATTLING

By LAWTON CARVER
International News Service Sports Editor

NEW YORK, Aug. 30.—The New York Yankees will open their world series ticket sales on Tuesday of next week; the following day Commissioner Kennesaw Mountain Landis, heads of both major leagues and officials of contending teams will gather here to make plans for the big event, and the major question that will remain undecided by that time is whether it will be the Brooklyn Dodgers or St. Louis Cardinals. The Yanks are fairly certain of having the American League pennant bagged by that time.

They are 17 1-2 games in front today by virtue of the second place Chicago White Sox' loss yesterday to the St. Louis Browns, and there are just a few more than a score of games left on the schedules.

The National League situation remains strictly as it has been for weeks, with the Dodgers and Cards see-sawing. The former are in front by 1 1-2 again after beating the New York Giants yesterday.

Browns Down Sox

The White Sox went down before the Browns by 5 to 2, as Elden Auker spaced most of the nine hits he allowed to score his 13th victory in one of only two games played during the day. The Dodgers took that other one, 5 to 4, with a writhe fifth inning as Whitewy Wyatt won his 18th victory as Hal Schumacher was pasted for the defeat.

Today's schedule involving the leaders carried the attraction of the day at the Dodger park, as the Cardinals and a single between the Cards and Reds, while the Yanks encountered the Washington Senators and the White Sox tangled with the Browns again.

Curt Davis and Hugh Casey had the assignments to try to win two for the Dodgers, Mort Cooper was the Cardinal choice in a tough spot. His opponent from among the Reds was designated as Elmer Riddle, winner of 15 against two defeats to date.

The seats the Yankees will start selling next week for their share of the series will total 38,000, with the remainder of the nearly 70,000 to go on the days of the games in October, the opening to be in Yankee Stadium—the American League park—this year.

Moguls To Meet

There still has been no definite announcement as to whether the Dodgers would seek permission to play all the games at Yankee Stadium in the event they out-last the Cardinals, but this matter probably will be taken up as part of the routine at the world series meeting on Wednesday.

West Pittsburgh And Moose Will Play Twin Bill

City League Teams Will Stage First Double-Header Of Year In City League

Marshall field will be the scene Sunday afternoon of the first double-header the city league teams have attempted this season, with the West Pittsburgh "Gas House" gang battling the league leading Moose Club at 2 o'clock.

Both are postponed league games and in the event of good weather a large crowd will no doubt sit in on the proceedings. The Moose can be dislodged from first-place if they drop two to the "Gas House", leading now with 16 wins and two defeats, against 13 wins and three defeats for the second place Lawrence Indies.

Manager Danny DeGenova of the West Pittsburgh team announced today that he was starting his ace Donbeck in the first game and that other "Bucky" Winters, or Mike Marky would go to the mound in the second tilt.

Humphrey Candidate For Judge In County

Announces Candidacy For Democratic Party Nomination In September Primary

RAYMOND W. HUMPHREY

To the Democrat Voters of Lawrence County:

I herewith announce my candidacy for the office of Judge of the several courts of Lawrence county at the primary election to be held on the 9th day of September, 1941.

In so doing I believe the voters should be advised of the qualifications I believe to possess.

I have been a member of the bar of Lawrence county for 12 years, a member of the Supreme and Superior Courts of Pennsylvania, a member of the United States District Courts for the Pennsylvania district. I have acted by appointment for one term as assistant District Attorney, and have been associated in my general law practice with my father, Jos. W. Humphrey, in Ellwood City.

I have always been a resident of Lawrence county, a graduate of the Ellwood schools, Geneva college and a graduate of the University of Pittsburgh Law School in 1929. I am a member of several fraternal and civic organizations in Ellwood City.

As a boy I worked for and in the National Tube company plant at Ellwood City, as an engineer in the Sharon Coal and Limestone company mines at Brent, at all times associating and living with people in all walks of life in the county.

In my varied experience I believe I have learned to know in an intimate way all of the people of Lawrence county such as would give me a wide knowledge of their desires, hopes and problems. It is my firm belief that in aspiring for the high office of Judge, any candidate must have a close and intimate knowledge of those he may be called upon to judge, for only by a clear and full understanding can any human mind fairly and honestly judge their doings.

I recognize the importance of the duties of the office of Judge of the Courts of Lawrence county, and pledge myself to the voters that, if elected, I will always do my best to fill that office with dignity, fairness and sympathetic common sense which, after all, is the true basis for social happiness and social security among all our citizens.

My name as candidate will appear on the Democratic ballot in first place under the heading of "Judge." I earnestly solicit the support of all Democrat voters at the Primary election.

Daily Dozen

(From the Medical Society of the State of Pennsylvania)

Proper diet will safely take off any amount of fat.

A 479 pound woman has recently reduced to 179 pounds in 18 months.

Her general health and mental attitude have been greatly improved.

Imagine losing 300 pounds of weight without danger to health! Such reduction, naturally, requires skillful medical supervision.

There were complications which threatened but were safely handled. Thyroid extract counteracted low caloric diet depression.

Laboring breathing, weakness and abdominal pain were encountered. These difficulties were overcome by watchful, careful treatment.

The blood pressure was restored to normal.

Surgery removed the resultant masses of sagging skin.

The woman weighed 479—now she is a healthy 179 pounds.

Defense work balled up at the top and strikes holding up production. We can manage the world everywhere except here at home.

Two Slayers Die In Lethal Chamber

(International News Service)

SAN QUENTIN PRISON, Cal., 30.—Eldon Hawk, 26-year-old murderer, was granted his final wish, Friday. The young killer, who believed the "life to come will be beautiful," died in San Quentin's lethal gas chamber, sitting beside his best friend, John William Lintinger, 40, another condemned slayer.

Hawk and Lintinger, who became inseparable pals during their confinement in death row, entered the octagonally-shaped gas chamber at 10:02 a. m. Two minutes later deadly cyanide eggs were dropped into pans of sulphuric acid under the two chairs and at 10:13 the prison physician pronounced both men dead.

Very truly yours,

Your PERSONAL APPEARANCE depends on your cleaner, for no amount of your caution can overcome his failure to deliver clothes that SMELL Fresh and WEAR Fresh as well as look Fresh.

Harmful and offensive Odors signify that inferior methods were used, that the cleaning process was not completed, or both, while truly fresh clothes demand absolute freedom from PERSPIRATION ODORS, STORAGE ODORS AND CLEANING ODORS.
